5 critical moments for hand hygiene.

Always perform hand hygiene at these five evidence-based touchpoints recommended by the World Health Organization.

1. Before touching a patient.
2. Before clean/aseptic procedures.
3. After touching patient surroundings.
4. After touching a patient.
5. After body fluid exposure/risk.

Defend against germs, hold onto hydration.

85% C40H